

Guidance For Announcing Your Award

Congratulations on receiving a level one RiHA Award. We have included some text below to support you in sharing this information:

For your website

[ORGANISATION NAME] are thrilled to announce that we have been awarded a Level One Race in Heritage Award.

A joint venture initiative between Black Cultural Archives and Inclusive Boards, the Race in Heritage Award is the only initiative in the United Kingdom that recognises and awards Arts, Culture and Heritage organisations who are actively working to improve the representation, progression and succession of global majority staff and volunteers in the sector.

Level One award recipients have been independently assessed to be actively engaging with issues of race in the workplace across key themes of recruitment; engagement, communication and culture; and progressing talent from within.
